Adjacent to the Minneapolis-St. Paul airport, Bloomington offers city amenities with the easier pace that comes with being slightly outside the urban fray. A total of 34 hotel properties maintains meeting facilities for 10 to 2,000 attendees, and Bloomington offers easy access to both the Minneapolis Convention Center, with 480,000 square feet of exhibit space, 87 meeting rooms, and a 28,000-square-foot ballroom, and the St. Paul RiverCentre, which boasts 15 meeting rooms, a 27,000-square-foot ballroom, and 100,000 square feet of exhibit space. The Bloomington CVB is poised to help groups take advantage of it all.

at rest

Thirty-four hotels serve the Bloomington area, representing 7,300 guest rooms. Planners will find many properties under major meetings flags with guest rooms and amenities up to scratch for meetings.

at play

The Mall of America is a major draw for Bloomington, hosting more than 40 million visitors a year to its myriad retail outlets—not to mention an indoor amusement park and new indoor Water Park of America just adjacent to the mall. In addition, more than one-third of Bloomington is preserved for parks and recreation, including the Minnesota Valley National Wildlife Refuge. A new package called The Big Ticket allows access to several area attractions.

at the table

From international delights to regional favorites, planners find a smorgasbord of culinary choices in the Bloomington area. The CVB can put planners in touch with group-friendly outlets. Minneapolis, with its acclaimed theater offerings, also excels in the dining category.
