This trio of sister resorts lures planners with expansive facilities and unrivaled convenience.

at work

By developing resorts and convention centers with everything planners need situated under one roof—from state-of-the-art meeting facilities to on-site attractions—Gaylord Hotels remains a pioneer in the meetings resort industry. Nashville groups will marvel at Gaylord Opryland's 600,000 square feet of flexible event space, including extensive exhibit, ballroom, and boardroom facilities. The Delta is a glass-domed event pavilion, complete with a waterfall and 85-foot-high fountain. Gaylord Palms in Kissimmee is reminiscent of a Florida mansion, and comprises 400,000 square feet of high-tech meetings facilities, including a 178,500-square-foot exhibit hall, three ballrooms, and 61 breakout rooms. Gaylord Texan offers an impressive 400,000 square feet of convention space, including an 180,000-square-foot exhibit hall.

at rest

Nashville's Gaylord Opryland Resort & Convention Center will complete a room renovation this year, adding contemporary colors and a warm, inviting atmosphere to its 2,881 guest rooms, including 165 suites and 741 atrium-view rooms with private balconies. Distinctive Florida themes characterize the 1,406 guest rooms at Gaylord Palms Resort & Convention Center, including 125 suites (nine of them Presidential Suites) overlooking a Key West-style sailboat restaurant, palm trees, and an indoor spring, home to a family of alligators. At Gaylord Texan, atriums under glass are designed to pay tribute to the great state of Texas: Inside, resort guests encounter a San Antonio-style Riverwalk, Texas Hill Country, Palo Duro Canyon, and Mission Plaza, just to name a few. The Gaylord Texan Resort & Convention Center offers 1,511 total guest rooms, including 127 luxury suites as well as 476 lavishly appointed guest rooms in the resort's luxurious Lone Star Tower.

at play

Each Gaylord Hotels property offers unique entertainment choices right on site, beginning with the soaring, acres-wide, stories-high atriums that encompass each resort, featuring waterfalls, rivers, wildlife, exciting architecture, and more throughout—all themed to the resort's region. Full-service spas, excellent shopping at intimate boutiques, fitness centers, golf facilities, and a host of entertainment venues round out an impressive array of exciting things to do and see.

at the table

Whether it's a fancy closing banquet; dinner at an elegant gourmet restaurant; or a cozy, in-room snack, meetings guests at any Gaylord Hotels property are guaranteed top-level cuisine served with an extreme attention to personal service. Among the many accolades, Gaylord Hotels chefs and restaurants have received Four Stars from the Mobil Travel Guide, the Award of Excellence from Wine Spectator magazine and been honored with inclusion in the Distinguished Restaurants of North America (DiRoNA).
