

los angeles — california

hilton los angeles/universal city

first time winner

Located at the entrance to L.A.'s mega-entertainment complex, this hotel grabs the spotlight after a multimillion-dollar redo.

at rest

Fresh off the heels of a multimillion-dollar renovation, the hotel offers 482 oversized guest rooms, including nine Executive Suites, all featuring Hilton Signature Serenity Beds. Executive Suites have secured keyed access as well as access to the private Towers Lounge. All guest rooms feature views of the Hollywood Hills or Universal Studios.

at play

The Hilton Los Angeles/Universal City, located at the entrance to Universal Studios Hollywood and CityWalk—dubbed the Entertainment Capital of L.A.—is situated high on a hill above the giant entertainment complex. The property's ideal location makes it easy for attendees to enjoy these attractions during an afternoon of play or private functions. The hotel is also just minutes from major studios, the Hollywood Bowl, Griffith Observatory, Los Angeles Zoo, beaches, and other Hollywood sites. On property, meeting-goers can take a break by working out in the fitness center, swimming in the heated outdoor pool, relaxing in the spa, or staying out of the sun in one of the new cabanas.

at the table

The award-winning Cafe Sierra serves a breakfast buffet; Saturday Champagne Brunch; and a Friday, Saturday, and Sunday Seafood, Lobster & Prime Rib Dinner Buffet. The Lobby Lounge is a great place to meet with business associates, watch TV, or enjoy a casual gathering. The Hilton Los Angeles/Universal City offers one of two hotel restaurants in Los Angeles that has its own separate Chinese Kitchen, a unique concept for banquets and VIP dining.

For more information: (818) 506-2500; www.universalcity.hilton.com

at work

The Hilton Los Angeles/Universal City features 60,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor function space, including the 16,000-square-foot Sierra Ballroom, which holds 2,000 guests for elegant receptions. Thirteen meeting and event rooms range from 352 to 1,789 square feet. Business continues throughout the day, courtesy of the property's WiFi environment and full-service business center. The hotel has recently installed videoconferencing and webcasting capabilities for those in need of additional technologies.