Among its 32,000 square feet of meeting space, the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa boasts two ballrooms—the 10,000-square-foot Emerald Ballroom and the 5,600-square-foot Coral Ballroom—and a 108-seat theater. Additional meeting space includes 20 meeting rooms, a 4,300-square-foot exhibition area, and an executive boardroom. For gorgeous views of the Gulf of Mexico and an open-air setting, there's the newly renovated and expanded Wood Deck East area, with more than 4,500 square feet. The hotel's planning team can help with all aspects of a convention, while a full-time meetings manager works exclusively with groups of 20 or less.

When business is wrapped up, guests don't have to look far to find fun and relaxation. Four award-winning golf courses—augmented by The Golf Learning Center and an 18-hole putting course—anchor the recreation options, which also include tennis, a full-service spa, pool facilities, a white-sand beach, and a marina. Teambuilding activities can be arranged on site, such as yoga classes and beach bowling. Guests can also venture off property to nearby shopping and entertainment in Destin.

at the table

Highly-acclaimed dining at the Hilton Sandestin Beach Golf Resort & Spa is highlighted by Seagar's Prime Steaks and Seafood, which has earned the DiRoNA Award of Excellence and is northwest Florida's first AAA Four Diamond restaurant. Hadashi, a Japanese sushi bar with live jazz entertainment, opened just off the lobby last year, while other on-site restaurants offer everything from burgers to buffets. They include Sandcastles, Barefoot Beachside Bar & Grill, Picnix, and the Sand Bar.
